Addendums are either faxed, mailed, e-mailed or hand delivered. Each addendum contains a notification which requires bidders to sign and include the addendum with their tender bid.

- The Bidder is bankrupt, or for whatever reason, its activities are rendered inoperable for an extended period.
- Evidence, satisfactory to the Owner, of fraud, bribery, fraudulent misrepresentation, or failure to comply with any law protecting individuals against any manner of discrimination has been received with respect to the Bidder, any of its employees or any subcontractor included as part of its Tender.
- Evidence satisfactory to the Owner that, based on past conduct or behavior, the Bidder, a subcontractor, or a person designated to perform the work is not suitable or has conducted itself improperly.
- The Owner determines that the Bidder's performance under other contracts, including the efficiency and quality of the work performed, and the extent to which the Bidder complies or has complied with contractual clauses and conditions in performing the work, is or was unsatisfactory.
- The Bidder acknowledges that it shall have no claim against, or entitlement to damages from, the Owner by reason of the owner's rejection of its Tender based upon the above criteria, or a rejection of all Tenders.
